

TIME IS MARCHING ON!

SCHEDULE THESE TRAININGS TODAY!

Intimate partner and parenting problems seriously impact Soldier readiness, affecting as many as 800 Soldiers per year on Fort Liberty alone. Prevent it within your ranks!

NEW UNIT COMMANDER AND CSM/ISG/SENIOR NCO TRAINING:

Incidents occur when you least expect them. Family violence incidents can be extremely challenging to handle and can potentially result in death, if not managed carefully. This training provides an essential guide on how to prevent and handle these incidents effectively, and prepares leaders for any situation by explaining Domestic Violence/Child Abuse reporting procedure (IPL #40) and the IDC process.

- ✓ Required IAW AR 608-18
- ✓ Complete within 45 days of taking command/responsibility
- ✓ Part of the Pre-Command Course
- ✓ OIP inspectable

Consider having your entire leadership team attend to gain resources and information to effectively manage Family violence incidents.

ANNUAL UNIT BRIEF:

Improve unit cohesion and readiness with this "Family Issues" Unit Brief from ACS FAP. This engaging brief provides guidance and awareness on how to prevent partner and child abuse; avoid other serious partner and child violence situations; and offers ways to obtain private assistance.

- ✓ Recommended annually IAW AR 608-18
- ✓ Verified during XVII Airborne Corps OIP inspections
- ✓ Schedule at a time and location of your choice

Participation in this brief has shown to drastically reduce serious partner and child abuse incidents.

SCHEDULE YOUR TRAININGS TODAY:
(910)396-5521

If you miss a scheduled training, call us for a tailored desk-side training. ACS FAP provides 24/7 help-line numbers and a variety of other helpful resources and information.

